

Dr. Tim Lee was inducted as a Fellow in the Canadian Society for Psychomotor Learning and Sport Psychology at the SCAPPS annual meeting in Winnipeg on October 15, 2011.

Fellows are members of the Society who have made a distinguished contribution to the advancement of the fields of psychomotor learning and sport psychology or who have given exceptional service to this Society.

Individual

- Demonstrates high standards of professional development by contributing directly to SCAPPS as evidenced by presentations at annual conferences, organizing of SCAPPS conferences, and membership on SCAPPS executive.
- 20 years post-doctorate or equivalent terminal degree from an accredited institution.
- Continuous SCAPPS membership over a 15-year period. Made significant contributions to the scientific body of knowledge related to SCAPPS.
- Receive approval by 5/6 vote of Executive.