PROJECT TITLE

Applied Behaviour Analysis Practicum for Adults with Acquired Brain Injury

PROJECT SUPERVISOR

Dr. Bruce Linder, Clinical Psychologist
Consulting Clinical Director, BISH
Adjunct Assistant Professor
Department of Psychology, Neuroscience & Behaviour
McMaster University
Pryor, Linder & Associates

PROJECT LOCATION

Brain Injury Services of Hamilton, Hamilton, Ontario

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Students will be trained in Applied Behaviour Analysis Skill training methods and then will work with adults with acquired brain injury concerning frontal brain functioning, social skills, and capacity for empathy and systematizing.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Students will learn Applied Behaviour Analysis Skill training methods that they will apply to adults with Acquired Brain Injury on a weekly basis.

Having an automobile is an asset although not required

Can accommodate 20 students for this project.